

International weather report :

Niveau 1 (CE2) :

capacités travaillées :

savoir se présenter
savoir dire les formules de politesses usuelles
savoir demander et dire le temps qu'il fait et la température qu'il fait
connaître les capitales des pays anglophones
connaître les nombres jusqu'à 30

-Hello my name's Jenny on BBC world radio. Monica, what's the weather like in London ?
-Hello Jenny, in London it's raining and 8 degrees.
-Thank you Monica. What's the weather like in Washington ?
-In Washington it's cloudy and 12 degrees
-What's the weather like in Ottawa ?
-In Ottawa, it's snowing and 2 degrees.
-What's the weather like in Sydney ?
-In Sydney, it's sunny and 28 degrees.
-What's the weather like in Wellington ?
-In Wellington, it's cloudy and 25 degrees.
-Thank you, goodbye Monica.
-Good bye Jenny.

Niveau 2 (CM2)

capacités travaillées :

savoir se présenter
savoir dire la date
savoir dire l'heure
savoir dire les formules de politesses usuelles
savoir demander et dire le temps qu'il fait et la température qu'il fait
connaître les capitales des pays anglophones
connaître les nombres jusqu'à 30

-Hello, good morning, my name is Cindy Sherman. Today it's Monday, the 5th of January 2014. It's 9 o'clock AM in London and here's the international weather report. Helen, what's the weather like in Ottawa ?
-Hello Cindy, here in Ottawa it's 3 o'clock it's cloudy and one degree.
-Thanks Helen. Jenny what's the weather like in Washington ?
-Hello Cindy, here in Washington, it's one o'clock AM, it's snowing and 6 degrees.
-Great Jenny. Lucy what's the weather like in Sydney ?
-Hello Cindy. Here in Sydney it's 7 o'clock PM, it's sunny and 18 degrees.
-Great Lucy. Here in London it's raining and 6 degrees. Goodbye, see you tomorrow.

